LIVING IN GOD'S FAVOUR

FEBRUARY 2026

*"For You, O Lord, will bless the righteous; With favour You will surround him as with a shield."
Psalm 5:12 NKJV*

The Bible teaches that believers are the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus. Because of this new identity, we are meant to live under God's divine favour. Paul writes, "For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him" (2 Corinthians 5:21 NKJV). As the righteous, we are not striving to earn favour; we are surrounded by it.

WHAT IS THE FAVOUR OF GOD?

God's favour is His gracious disposition toward His people. It opens doors, grants access, increases opportunities, and releases abundance. It is both our inheritance and our daily covering. In Psalm 5:12, the Hebrew word for favour is "ratzon", meaning delight, goodwill, or acceptance. God's favour is a shield that surrounds the righteous, giving us protection as well as blessing. God's favour represents goodwill, preferential treatment, and divine approval that brings desired outcomes to pass. When God's favour rests on a life, people are moved to bless us, even without understanding why.

FAVOUR BRINGS DELIVERANCE

One of the most powerful demonstrations of God's favour is seen in Israel's deliverance from Egypt. God's goodwill brought His people out of bondage, fulfilling a promise He had made to Abraham centuries earlier. Though Israel endured slavery for four hundred years, God promised they would come out with great possessions. Exodus 3:21 says "I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians." Their former oppressors willingly gave them silver, gold, and clothing. Psalm 105:37 declares, "He also brought them out with silver and gold, and there was none feeble among His tribes." God's favour produced freedom, provision, and strength. Israel's deliverance paints a picture of redemption: freedom from bondage, abundant blessing, and wholeness flowing from God's favour.

FAVOUR WITH ENEMIES

The Bible says, "When a man's ways please the Lord, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him" (Proverbs 16:7 NKJV). God's favour has the power to change hostile situations and turn resistance into cooperation. In Egypt, God caused the Israelites' enemies to look upon them favourably. What seemed impossible became effortless when God intervened. This reminds us that favour is not limited by opposition. God can work on our behalf in spite of it!

EXPECT GOD'S FAVOUR

God promised Abraham abundant favour, not only for himself but for all who would come after him. The New Testament makes it clear that those who belong to Christ are Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise (Galatians 3:7-9, 29). This means God's favour is part of our spiritual inheritance. It is available to every believer, not just a select few. Psalm 145 teaches that God satisfies every living thing with favour. "You open Your hand and satisfy every living thing with favour." (Psalm 145:15-16 AMP) As believers, we are called to live with expectation, watching and waiting for God to move on our behalf. Grace, which is God's undeserved favour, is promised to all who love the Lord Jesus Christ (Ephesians 6:24). When we believe God is at work, we become more aware of His hand guiding, providing, and opening doors.

SUPERNATURAL FAVOUR DAILY

Daniel's life provides a clear example of supernatural favour. Though taken captive into Babylon as a young man, God granted him favour with leaders and authority figures. "Now God had brought Daniel into the favour and goodwill of the chief of the eunuchs." (Daniel 1:9 NKJV) God gave Daniel wisdom and insight, leading to promotion and influence. His advancement was not the result of human effort alone. It was divine favour at work. The early church experienced this same reality. Despite persecution, Scripture says "great grace was upon them all" as they boldly testified of Christ (Acts 4:33). Favour increased as they obeyed God.

Walking in Greater Favour

The Bible reveals key principles for increasing in favour. Humility is essential, for “God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble” (James 4:6). Knowledge of God and His Word will increase grace and peace in our lives (2 Peter 1:2). We are encouraged to ask God for favour with sincere hearts. “I entreated Your favour with my whole heart;” (Psalms 119:58 NKJV) Pleasing God through obedience positions us for greater measures of grace. Jesus Himself “increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and men” (Luke 2:52 NKJV). This shows us that favour can grow and multiply. Like Jesus, we can live continually under divine favour when we seek to do the Father’s will.

The favour of God is a powerful reality that brings protection, opportunity, increase, and blessing. It delivers us from bondage, opens doors no one can open and sustains us in every season. Seek to obey God and walk by faith, trusting Him to surround you with His “shield of favour” every day.
